Harris InfoSource (a D&B® company) and ebrary are now offering academic and public libraries an integrated, full-text database combining three Harris InfoSource products for one affordable price: Harris Industry Reports™, Harris Major Companies Reports™, and Harris State Manufacturing Reports™.

Powered by ebrary, Harris InfoSource Industry and Manufacturing Reports provides simultaneous, multi-user access to a comprehensive overview of major U.S. industry sectors as well as individual companies. The database currently includes more than 300 current reports, and will be continually updated at no additional cost to libraries throughout the subscription term.

SPECIAL OFFER

Libraries that subscribe to both Harris InfoSource Industry and Manufacturing Reports and D&B International Business Reports™ will receive a discount of over 10% for the combined purchase, while providing researchers with a compelling overview of world business statistics and information by country, by industry, or by company.

CURRENT DATABASE OF INDUSTRY-SPECIFIC BUSINESS DATA

Harris InfoSource Industry and Manufacturing Reports combine the following products into one highly interactive database:

HARRIS INDUSTRY REPORTS™

These annual reports provide clear profiles and quick insight to more than 85 manufacturing industries, giving researchers and professionals critical information at a glance.

The reports give industry statistics, supported by graphs and charts, for a complete picture of manufacturing markets. See what types of companies are involved in different industries and the range of product development by industry, including where each industry finds its geographic home. Harris Industry Reports also provides summary statistics and breakdowns of the SIC and NAICS codes that comprise the industry. Key features include:

- Industry descriptions and developments
- Density maps and breakdowns
- SIC and NAICS product listings
- Employment level breakdowns

HARRIS MAJOR COMPANIES REPORTS™

These monthly reports contain full profiles for the 100 or 200 largest manufacturers in more than 200 industries or 50 states. They comprise the major manufacturers in targeted industries or states, and give all relevant data for researchers or professionals looking for key facts about specific market leaders.

HARRIS STATE MANUFACTURING REPORTS™

These annual reports provide the total manufacturing landscape of each U.S. state. Find out which industries are strong, which are weak and where the major industrial areas are located in each state. Perfect for researchers or professionals that need quick and accurate information about key industries within each state, State Manufacturing Reports include summary statistics on firm count, employment and estimated sales for:

- The state's manufacturing industry as a whole
- 15 manufacturing sectors
- Major metropolitan areas

The reports also include:

- An overview of manufacturing developments in the state
- Major firm location listings
- Density maps
